

How YOU can help

Your sponsorship will help us perform this major work while keeping ticket prices accessible for a broad audience

At the conclusion of the 2022-23 concert season, we will commemorate Music Director Manny Laureano's ninth season and celebrate the Bloomington Symphony's 60th Anniversary with a performance of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony – a piece beloved for its musical perfection and the message that celebrates joy and humanity.

Manny Laureano and the 75 volunteer musicians of the BSO will be joined by four vocal soloists and a chorus made up of 70 singers from Normandale College Concert Choir, the Twin Cities Catholic Chorale, and the Angelica Encore Choral Ensemble

Orchestra Hall in Minneapolis is an acoustically superb space, ADA accessible, and along public transit lines. Orchestra Hall is also the closest venue to Bloomington that is large enough to present this concert with over 150 musicians onstage.
